Research

- What to Ask Clients Before Starting a Project - Wix.com This page explained that designers should lead initial conversations by focusing on the client's high-level business goals and underlying challenges rather than just talking about website aesthetics.
- Getting Started with Client Intake Forms - Mailchimp This page explained how a client intake form is used as a screening tool to collect essential business data and establish a clear onboarding process before scheduling a kickoff meeting.
- Graphic design client questionnaire: 13 key questions - HoneyBook This page explained that asking clients to share specific examples of designs they love and hate helps pinpoint their visual preferences and expectations.

Questions

1. What is your business?
2. Who runs it?
3. Who is it intended for?
4. What does it do?
5. What pages do you want?
6. Who takes care of pics and videos for the website?
7. How much media do you want?
8. Will your media be updated frequently?
9. Do you already have a logo and/or colors?
10. Do we need to create a logo and/or colors?
11. What do you want the style to be?
12. Give me some websites you maybe like or dislike so I know what style you're looking for.
13. When do you want this done?
14. What is your budget?
15. Will you want updates to it?
16. Where will it be published?

Client Intake

About Your Business

1. What is the name of your business?

Answer: _____

2. What does your business do?

Answer: _____

About Your Business

3. Do you have a logo?

Answer: _____

4. Do you have brand colors? If so, what are they?

Answer: _____

About Your Business

5. What style do you want in a few words (modern, sleek, colorful, pop, light, dark)?

Answer: _____

6. Do you have Pictures and/or videos you want on the website?

Answer: _____

About Your Business

7. Who takes care of the media (pictures and/or videos)?

Answer: _____

8. Will Media update often?

Answer: _____

9. What is your budget?

Answer: _____

10. Will you want updates?

Answer: _____

11. Do you want a contact page?

Answer: _____

12. What other pages may you want?

Answer: _____